DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

- I. Group I, claim(s) 26-44, drawn to a method for decontaminating an enclosed space.
- II. Group II, claim(s) 45-50, drawn to an apparatus for decontaminating an enclosed space.

The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

As stated under PCT Rule 13, a group of inventions is considered linked to form a single general inventive concept where there is a technical relationship among the inventions that involves at least one common or corresponding special technical feature. The expression special technical feature is defined as meaning those technical features that define the contribution which each claimed invention, considered as a whole, makes over the prior art. The single general inventive concept and special technical feature in the instant application comprises producing hydrogen peroxide/water vapour from an aqueous solution of hydrogen peroxide, providing a heated airstream, flash evaporating the aqueous solution of hydrogen peroxide/water vapour from the supply into the airstream, and introducing the airstream carrying the hydrogen peroxide/water vapour into the atmosphere in the enclosed space to decontaminate the space, wherein the atmosphere in the enclosed space is recirculated and hydrogen peroxide/water vapour is flash evaporated into the recirculating atmosphere until the dewpoint is reached and condensation of hydrogen peroxide/water vapour on the surfaces of the enclosure takes place to decontaminate the surfaces. Schmidt (U.S. Patent No. 4, 863,688) and Skan (CH 689,178 A) disclose this special technical feature as denoted by the "X" reference on the International Search Report. Therefore, the single inventive concept cannot be considered a special technical feature because it does not make a contribution over the prior art. Consequently, the inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept.

2. Should the applicant elect Group I, then this application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

- A. Directed to a method of decontamination wherein the solution contains 30-35% hydrogen peroxide and a balance of water.
- B. Directed to a method of decontamination wherein the solution contains hydrogen peroxide and peracetic acid and a balance of water.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

3. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

- A. Species A, directed to claim 36
- B. Species B, directed to claims 35 and 37.

The following claim(s) are generic: 26.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: See explanation regarding lack of a special technical feature in the claims in Section 1 of this office action.

4. A telephone call was made to Dana Tangren on February 8, 2007 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103 (a) of the other invention.

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
